University of Missouri Kansas City
School of Nursing and Health Studies
Strategic Map: 2014-2017

Prepare Outstanding Health Professionals to Succeed in an Era of Growth, Change and Collaboration

Graduate Leaders who Practice to the Full Extent of their Education
- Ensure Comprehensive Curricula that Meet/Exceed National Recommendations
- Prioritize Resources to Meet Emerging Health Workforce Needs
- Perform Continuous Program Evaluation
- Provide Role Models and Mentorship Opportunities for Students
- Promote Faculty Participation/Leadership in Professional Organizations
- Support Student Success by Maximizing Use of University Resources

Advance Research and Scholarship and Its Translation into Practice
- Create a Culture that Values Research and Scholarship
- Diversify Funding Sources
- Expand Participation in Research and Scholarship
- Integrate Evidence into All Educational Programs to Enable Translation into Practice
- Provide Competitive Salary and Benefits

Enhance Innovative Clinical and Community Partnerships
- Develop a Strategic Approach to Ensure Appropriate Partnerships
- Implement a Communication Plan that Reflects SoNHS’s Identity
- Foster Entrepreneurial Thinking to Generate Revenue
- Enhance Opportunities for Alumni Engagement
- Provide Competitive Salary and Benefits

Cultivate a Mission-Focused Faculty and Staff
- Foster an Environment that Supports Professional Development
- Maintain a Qualified, Diverse, and Sufficient Faculty and Staff to Support the Mission
- Engage All Faculty/Staff in Advancing the Mission
- Support Consistent Application of Workload Policy
- Improve Understanding of Expertise and Roles/Responsibilities Across SoNHS

Foster a Cohesive, Efficient Organization
- Expect an Environment of Respect and Professionalism
- Engage in Continuous Process Improvement
- Evaluate the Ongoing Efficiency/Effectiveness of Shared Services
- Standardize Strong Faculty/Staff Orientation and Recognition Programs
- Provide Diversity/Inclusion Training by Maximizing Use of University Resources

Cultivate a Diverse, Inclusive Environment

Promote Interprofessional Education, Practice and Research

Purposeful Integration of Emerging Technology

Approved by vote of faculty & staff at all school meeting 11/12/14