Option 2: Commitment through Private Foundation or Donor-Advised Fund

IRS regulations prohibit a private foundation or a donor-advised fund from making a gift toward the personal pledge of an individual. If you have a private foundation or donor-advised fund and intend to make one or more gifts toward this commitment, please indicate below. A pledge can be made from a private foundation, but the commitment form needs to be signed by an official of the foundation. Gifts from individuals can be made toward the pledge of a foundation, but not vice versa.

I/we intend to make a recommendation from our donor-advised fund and/or private foundation to make the following gifts to the UMKC Foundation for the purpose as described on the following page.

Gifts from donor-advised funds cannot be used to satisfy personal pledges (thereby converting this into an intent).*

$ _____ Total estimated gift

Matching Gifts

You may also be eligible to enhance your personal gift to the UMKC Foundation through a matching gift if you or your spouse are employed by, serve on a board for or are retired from a company with a matching gift program. Matching gifts are contributions from an organization, and you will receive recognition credit for the amount of each matching gift received. Matching gifts cannot be included in the amount of your personal pledge commitment to the UMKC Foundation and cannot reduce your personal pledge.

I/we work for a company with a matching gift program. Name of Company: _____

By signing below, I/we confirm the details of my commitment to the UMKC Foundation, for the benefit of the University of Missouri-Kansas City, and authorize the payment of such commitment as noted above.
